

The Southern Flinders Ranges offers a wide selection of leisure, recreational and cultural activities to its residents. The region features a theatre, a tourism and arts centre, walking and riding tracks, pubs, clubs and restaurants and a wide variety of sporting facilities. No matter what you like to do in your spare time, the Southern Flinders Ranges has it for you!

Let's Get Active.....In the SFR, our citizens grow up with sport, with most participating from an early age. With strong competitions available in Aussie Rules Football, Cricket, Basketball, Netball, Volleyball, Soccer and so many more, it's easy to find your niche in the world of sport in the SFR. Port Pirie also boasts two world class fitness centres with weights, cardio equipment and aerobics classes available whenever you feel the need to get fit! The newest addition to the Southern Flinders Ranges active choices is the Cycle Tourism Trails. Grab your bicycle and see beautiful surrounds as you ride at your own pace through Melrose and Bartagunyah.

Movies and Theatre.....The Northern Festival Centre, located in Port Pirie, is a fully equipped multi-purpose arts centre. The Keith Michell Theatre is the heart of the festival centre and has a 500 seat auditorium. New release movies are regularly shown in the theatre, which doubles as a cinema. If live performances are more your scene, the theatre has visiting shows on a regular basis, including musicals, plays, dance performances and concerts. For more information about the theatre and what's on, visit: www.countryarts.org.au

Cultural Awareness.....The redevelopment of the former Port Pirie Railway Station to create a multi award winning Regional Tourism and Arts Centre is the jewel in the City and region's tourism crown. The Centre is a must for any visitor wishing to engage in a unique cultural experience. Port Pirie also boasts a fabulous art gallery, which is located at the tourism and arts centre. This beautifully designed, award winning "A" Class Gallery, showcases art from the community, regional South Australia and contemporary visual arts and craft from across Australia. The region is home to some of the best Festivals and Events in Country SA! No matter what time of year you're planning a visit to the Southern Flinders Ranges, there's always an exciting event to catch. For more information, visit: www.pirie.sa.gov.au

Wining and Dining.....Delights on offer in the Southern Flinders Ranges include gourmet meats, olive products, pastries, honey, condiments and seafood plus famous Golden North ice cream and locally produced soft drinks with a unique range of flavours. In addition boutique wineries are providing cellar door sales. Port Pirie also boasts a strong "café culture" with alfresco café dining very popular and with several cafes and restaurants to choose from, you're spoilt for choice. Whether you're looking for a country pub meal, delicious baked delights, or fresh seafood, we have it all in one place. For further information, visit: www.southernflindersranges.com.au

Shop till you Drop.....The region offers a wide variety of shopping experiences. Port Pirie hosts the major shopping district, which includes Woolworths, Coles, Kmart, Target and many speciality stores, including furniture, clothing and electrical goods. Whatever you are looking to buy, you'll be able to find it in the Southern Flinders Ranges.
